

I strongly object to Sinclair Broadcasting using publicly owned air waves for partisan purposes. One major broadcasting company has no right to dictate biased programming for multiple markets. This undermines the most basic requirements for democracy.